LG OLED

LIGHT UP YOUR WORLD WITH SELF-LIT PIXELS.

OLED has millions of self-lit pixels that can turn on and off to achieve perfect black and infinite contrast. Why is black important for picture quality? The deeper your blacks, the better your contrast ratio, the more detail can be seen, and your colours are more vibrant and realistic. So it doesn't matter how many thousands of backlights they have, LED TVs will still be in OLED's shadow. This is everything you love about TV - elevated in every way.
